Meta-Data Era

After the inaugural meeting in Beijing, China and successful conference series in Scotland, India, and South Africa, the fifth BISMIS is back to China after 12 years. The conference will be held in Guangzhou, China from Nov 5-9th, 2023, hosted by Sun Yat-Sen University and other institutes. The organizer Prof. Wen-Jun Li and his team sincerely welcome you to participate, and details of registration, fees, and accommodation are provided on the BISMIS website (www.bismis2023.com).

The meeting will provide an excellent opportunity for global participants to share their ideas and meet the experts in the field.

The meeting will be held at Baiyun International Convention Center that is a modern commercial and cultural center of Guangzhou and located in Baiyun New District. The center is close to the Baiyun Mountain Scenic Area, which is the first national 5A tourist attraction in Guangzhou.
